PURCHASER'S DUTIES

Purchasers are advised and requested to inspect each lot prior to purchase. Each lot is sold under the Conditions of Sale, unless otherwise specified by the auctioneer on the day. There is no term implied in any sale that any lot is of merchantable quality or is fit for training or any particular purpose.

Purchasers are subject to any announcements that may be made from the Auctioneer's Rostrum and therefore it is the responsibility of all bidders to be in attendance at the commencement of the sale of a Lot to hear any such announcements.

All lots must be inspected before bidding - you are deemed to have inspected the animal and all necessary documents by bidding for the animal and at the fall of the hammer the animal becomes your responsibility. The purchaser should furnish his name and address to Hanley Sales immediately and pay the purchase price and fees as soon as possible. Hanley Sales retain the right to put the animal up for auction or sell by private treaty should the purchaser fail to pay for the animal.

A purchaser shall furnish their name and address immediately after the fall of the hammer and shall immediately pay the purchase price. Should the purchase price not be paid then Hanley Sales may, at their discretion, put the Lot up for auction and re-sell it.

The seller is responsible for the accuracy of all information concerning their animal and Hanley Sales are in no way responsible for the description of any Lot. Please advise the auctioneer if there are any inaccuracies in this catalogue.

The Seller/Agent is responsible for the declaration of all known vices (EXAMPLES Crib Biter, Windsucker, Napping Weaving, Box Walking, Lip Flapping, Head Shaker etc) and to ensure that same are announced by the commentator from the auctioneer's rostrum. The Seller/Agent must also declare any other problem with the animal to be sold, e.g. nervous/difficult to ride, difficult to box, or any other behavioural problems, etc. also ensuring that these comments are announced by the commentator from the auctioneer's rostrum.

If a vice or prior signs of sweet itch/melanomas, etc. presents itself and the office is notified and it is found that this problem is verified then the animal is returnable (complaint must be lodged within 7 days post sale and if nothing has arisen prior to monies being paid out the contract is deemed complete)

Any horse that sucks its tongue or makes a sucking noise this is regarded as a vice and must be declared – if not horse is returnable. Post sale if any horse has any difference in description, something that is found to be severe that should not be there and is not recorded, e.g. any clinical signs of sweet itch, cataract in an eye, melanoma etc. then the animal is returnable to the Vendor. Complaint must be lodged within 7 days post sale and if nothing has arisen prior to monies being paid out the contract is deemed complete and any other dispute thereof will have to be taken directly between purchaser and vendor and Hanley Sales will have no part. It is the responsibility of the Purchaser to ensure that he is satisfied with the condition of any Lot before bidding. MEDICAL OR SURGICAL CONDITIONS TO BE DECLARED: Any animal found to be a Wobbler, Shiverer, De-nerved or has any allergies e.g skin etc, sweet itch, C.O.P.D Chronic obstructive diseases been operated for wind or is on drugs at time of sale.

Neither the auctioneer nor Hanley Sales accept responsibility for any act, omission, default or neglect of themselves, their employees, agents or owners or horses and their agents or visitors to the sale or injury, damage or loss to persons, animals, goods or property whatsoever and howsoever the same may be caused. We retain the right of entry to Hanley Sales of any animal and/or person.

The auctioneers act as an agent only between the buyer and the seller and accept no responsibility for errors of description, defect or otherwise which was supplied by the seller.

The auctioneers shall determine disputes with regard to bidding etc, and their decisions shall be binding and conclusive on all parties. Disputes are between the buyer and the seller and under no circumstances should Hanley Sales be liable to either party in connection with the dispute.

A Lot entered for the Sales and advertised for sale by Hanley Sales shall not be sold by the owner before the auction of the animal. In the event a sale occurs, full commission will be due to Hanley Sales within a week prior to and a week after the date of sale.

If a horse leaves the sales ring unsold a potential purchaser may negotiate directly (or with the assistance of a member of HanleySales Team) with the Seller/Agent, if an agreement is reached both purchaser and Seller/Agent must put this transaction through the main office. Anyone found not adhering to these conditions may result in both Seller/Agent and Purchaser being barred from future sales at Hanley Sales

A Lot purchased shall be removed from Hanley Sales premises not later than the evening of the sale of the day of purchase. If the purchase price has not been paid at the time of sale then the Lot shall not be released to the Purchaser until paid for. If a Lot is purchased and not paid for as herein before provided, then the following provisions shall take effect until payment is received,

(a) Title to the Lot shall not pass to the Purchaser but shall remain vested in the Seller.

(b) Should the Purchaser fail to pay for a Lot within a reasonable period then such Lot may at any time be resold by Public Auction or by Private Treaty, and the deficiency (if any) resulting from such resale shall immediately be made good by the defaulting Purchaser.

(c) Nothing herein contained shall preclude Hanley Sales or the Vendor of a Lot pursuing all legal remedies available to them, or either of them for the recovery of the Purchase Price from a defaulting Purchaser and all expenses commissions and damages resulting from such default.

SAFETY

Every person on the Hanley Sales premises on which the Sale takes place, whether before, during or after the Sale shall be deemed to be there at their own risk and Hanley Sales exclude liability in respect of any injury sustained by any of them or any loss or damage to property which may occur from any cause whatsoever, nothing in this sub-condition shall be taken to exclude or restrict liability at law for death or personal injury to any person arising from Hanley Sales negligence.

Hanley Sales accepts no responsibility for any disease, accident, loss or fatal or non fatal injury caused to a Lot (including death, theft or injury) or caused by any Lot while it is being moved by Hanley Sales employees, agents or subcontractors between yards and Hanley Sales premises or at any time whilst it is on Hanley Sales premises. Provided always that nothing in this condition shall be taken to exclude or restrict Hanley Sales liability at law for death or personal injury to persons arising from Hanley Sales negligence.

PAYMENT, COMMISSIONS AND FEES

Money shall not be paid to the Seller/Agent of any Lot unless the Lot is cleared by the Purchaser. In the event of a defaulting purchaser the Auctioneers shall not be held liable or responsible for any deficiency which may arise on the resale of an undeclared Lot. Hanley Sales shall not be answerable for any deficiency which may arise on the re-sale of an uncleared Lot. Payment to the Seller/Agent will be made within 31 days of the day of the Sale in respect of those animals where payment has been received.
